

DDA 83-0281/2

2 FEB 1983

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Planning Staff

FROM:

[REDACTED]

Executive Officer to the DDA

1-2

STAT

SUBJECT: "Executive of the Agency" Function

REFERENCE: Note to EO/DDA from C/PS, dtd 27 Jan 83

1. In keeping with your request, we have asked the appropriate DDA components to review and update [REDACTED] we will be forwarding their proposed revisions within a couple of weeks.

STAT

2. Your proposal to transfer the "Executive of the Agency" function to the Executive Director from the DDA, [REDACTED] is not appropriate. Despite the creation of the Executive Director, the DDA is specifically cited by statute as the "Executive" of the Agency. While the Executive Director is the number three person in the CIA with authorities delegated to him from the DCI/DDCI, I am not aware that any of the DDA's responsibilities were transferred to the Executive Director.

STAT

3. As I understand it, the term "Executive of the Agency" initially centered on the individual's procurement authorities. As best as I can determine, the DDA has been designated as the Executive since the early 1950s. This has continued up to the present even though we had an Executive Director-Comptroller during the 1962-1973 time frame.

4. Please let me know if you need any additional information.
